ies of death. And be sure to give Cindy the comforting thought that all things happen for the best and that God always makes the right decision.

Dear Ann Landers: Let this be the last word on the row in your column over the chaste brides. It seems to me there are an awful lot of stupid or unrealistic people around.

Why is it that nobody says anything about the history of the groom? Does that white flower in his lapel signify purity? If this were true there would be darned few white flowers sold.

No man who has been around the track has the right to insist that his bride be of the lily-white variety. Yet some do. At the same time, just to round out this cock-eyed picture, visualize if you will, a girl demanding that her groom be pure. She'd be laughed right out of town as some kind of a nut or something.—LUNATIC FRINGE.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
